

Form Instructions for Divorce without Children and with Agreement on All Issues

READ BEFORE YOU USE THIS PACKET

When you sign a court document, you may be helping or hurting your case. Before you sign any court document or get involved with a court case, it is important that you get advice from a lawyer to make sure you are doing the right thing.

Going to court without a lawyer is risky, and if you choose to be unrepresented, you must be prepared. This form packet has been created to help you, but certain courts have their own procedures and may not accept every form. In fact, courts in some counties have their own local form packets and may prefer that you use them. Check with your county clerk's office to find out: <http://courts.in.gov/2808.htm>.

You may go to court without representation, but you will have to abide by the appropriate court rules, including Indiana Rules of Evidence, Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure, and any local rules. Learn more about going to court without a lawyer in an informative video at <http://courts.in.gov/2616.htm>.

For additional information, you may refer to the Indiana Self-Service Legal Center that can be found at <http://courts.in.gov/selfservice/>. For legal advice about your case, you should get in touch with a lawyer.

Step 1: Who should use this packet

You should use these instructions and the forms listed if you want to divorce your spouse AND:

1. You or your spouse have lived in Indiana for at least the past six months and one of you has lived in your current county for at least the past three months;
2. You are not currently pregnant with your spouse's child, or your spouse is not pregnant with your child;
3. Neither you nor your spouse is currently in the military; and
4. You and your spouse do have an agreement on how property should be divided.

If either you or your spouse is in the military, or if you or your spouse is pregnant, DO NOT use these instructions and the forms listed. There are special issues in your case that these forms do not address, and you need to seek legal advice from a lawyer.

If you are seeking a protection order, you may obtain a petition form from the Clerk of the Court or seek help from a victim advocate. A petition for a protection order must be filed as a separate case from this dissolution matter. For more information, see <http://courts.in.gov/selfservice/2352.htm>.

Step 2: Prepare your forms

Specific instructions for each form begin on page 5.

You should fill out the following forms:

Form Title	Form Number	Details	When to File
Appearance By Unrepresented Person in Civil Case	TCM-TR3.1-7	This form notifies the court that you intend to participate in a civil case.	See Step 4
Verified Petition for Dissolution of Marriage	PS-31152-14	This form asks the court to grant you a divorce and make temporary arrangements until the case is over.	See Step 4
Summons	TCM-TR4.1-2	This form notifies your spouse that you have filed for divorce and that your spouse must also file an appearance in the case in order to participate in it.	See Step 4
Verified Waiver of Final Hearing	PS-31152-2	This form informs the court that because you and your spouse agree to the terms of the divorce, you waive your right to a final hearing.	See Step 5
Decree of Dissolution of Marriage	PS-31152-9	This form is the final order of the court ending the marriage and outlining the final arrangements for things like child custody, visitation, and housing.	See Step 6

You can either print the blank forms and fill them out by hand, or fill them out on the computer and then print them out, but you need to learn more about what color paper to use and how many copies you'll need:

- See Step 3 for important information about using light green paper to print the Appearance Confidential Form.
- Review your local court rules to find out how many copies you will need, and any additional forms or procedures required in your county. Read your county's local rules here: <http://courts.in.gov/2694.htm>.
- In addition to the forms above, you will need to prepare child support forms. See Step 5 for more information.

If you cannot afford it, you may ask the court to waive the divorce filing fee. To do so, complete the Motion for Fee Waiver in a Divorce form packet at <http://courts.in.gov/selfservice/2347.htm>.

Step 3: Printing your completed forms & understanding confidentiality

About Confidentiality

By law court records are available to the public, and upon request anyone can look in almost any court file. The law also provides that certain information must remain confidential even if it is part of a court record. Such confidential information must be filed on green paper so that everyone can easily identify it and not release it to the public. It is important that you know what information is confidential and that you submit it to the court on green paper.

Confidential information that should be filed on green paper includes:

- Social Security numbers,
- Bank account numbers,
- Tax records,
- PIN numbers,
- Medical records,
- Child abuse records

For more information on this you may review Administrative Rule 9(G) at <http://www.in.gov/judiciary/rules/admin>.

What to File on Green Paper in this Packet.

Because you do not have children, you do not need to file the Confidential Form-Not for Public Use which must be filed on green paper. No other forms in this packet ask for confidential information.

Step 4: File your initial forms

Take the originals and copies of the following forms to the Clerk of the Court in the county where you (or your spouse) have lived for at least the last three months:

- Appearance By Unrepresented Person in Civil Case
- Verified Petition for Dissolution of Marriage
- Summons

Locate your Clerk's Office here: <http://courts.in.gov/2808.htm>

The Clerk will provide the case number and process the forms. The Clerk will stamp the forms with a filing date and give you back a copy.

A copy of the file-stamped forms must be sent to your spouse's attorney, or to your spouse if he or she does not have an attorney. This is called "service" or "being served." Service can be accomplished by mail, in person (for example, by a Sheriff or Sheriff's representative), or even by fax or email. Methods of service can vary by county, so ask your Clerk's Office about your options.

Indiana law (IC 31-15-2-10) requires that you must wait at least 60 days to finish your divorce after you have filed these forms.

Step 5: File your final forms

After at least 60 days have passed since the filing of the Verified Petition for Dissolution of Marriage, take to the Clerk of the Court the originals and copies of:

- Verified Waiver of Final Hearing
- Decree of Dissolution

The Clerk will keep the decree for the judge to sign. When you file your Decree of Dissolution, you must provide the court with three copies and two pre-addressed stamped envelopes so the Clerk can mail one final copy to you and one to your spouse or their attorney.

Step 6: The Decree of Dissolution

Because you and your spouse have agreed to waive the final hearing, the judge will review the final documents and will sign your Decree of Dissolution and mail a copy to both you and your spouse.

*You are divorced when the judge signs the Decree of Dissolution.
You should not get re-married until you have a copy of the Decree of Dissolution signed by the Judge.*
